
Robert (Bob) Saiz
Chief Financial Officer

Prior to joining Supply Core, Inc., Saiz served as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Triumph Higher Education Group. After being promoted from Chief Financial Officer, he was responsible for strategic planning, operations, finance, investor relations, legal and compliance, technology, and course development.

Previously, Saiz joined Career Education Corporation (CEC) in 1997 where he held several financial and operational roles. As Chief Financial Officer of the University Group, Saiz led the finance and accounting teams responsible for three operating divisions with combined revenues exceeding $1 billion and serving over 50 thousand students. Saiz also served as Vice President of Acquisitions and Development where he sourced and evaluated business development opportunities domestically and abroad.

Prior to joining CEC, Saiz founded Saiz and Lamb, C.P.A.'s, a firm providing audit, tax, and business advisory services to a variety of corporate and not-for-profit clients. In addition, Saiz worked extensively with charitable trusts and foundations. He graduated in 1991 from the University of Montana with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and earned licensure as a Certified Public Accountant.
